Kalendar and Lectionary 2024–2025

*based upon the usage of
The Scottish Episcopal Church*

The Revd David Todd produces this Kalendar and Lectionary each year for Old St Paul's Church, Edinburgh and we are grateful to him for allowing us to adapt it to the use and kalendar of the Cathedral Church of St Ninian.

Kalendar and Lectionary 2024–2025

INTRODUCTION

1 The Kalendar included here is the Revised Scottish Calendar approved by the General Synod of the Scottish Episcopal Church in 1991, adapted for local use. The commemorations are classified in six groups which indicate not importance but precedence. Where two commemorations fall on the same day, that which has the lower number takes precedence. Commemorations in categories 1-4 are intended to be observed by the whole Church. For convenience the six ranks of feasts in the SEC calendar are here reduced to four: Solemnity; Feast; Memorial; and Optional Memorial

2 Readings for the Eucharist on Sundays and certain Holy Days are taken from the Revised Common Lectionary. This offers a three-year cycle of readings for use at celebrations of the Eucharist on Sundays and certain Holy Days. It is based on the table of readings produced by the Roman Catholic Church in 1969, which in turn was developed by the Consultation on Common Texts and published in 1984 as the Common Lectionary. The revision of 1992 is the result of reflection on the 1984 text, and was undertaken by members of the English Language Liturgical Consultation, which includes ecumenical associations of churches from Australia, Canada, Great Britain, New Zealand, South Africa and the United States.

The Synoptic Gospels are read semi-continuously, Matthew in Year A, Mark in Year B, Luke in Year C, with passages from the Fourth Gospel occurring at significant points during the three-year cycle. The other New Testament writings are also arranged to be read semi-continuously over the three years. Old Testament passages have been selected for every Sunday and many holy days, and a psalm is provided as a congregational response to the reading of the Old Testament.

The Revised Common Lectionary arranges that the Old Testament readings from Advent Sunday through to Pentecost are linked to the Gospel. On the Sundays after Pentecost two Old Testament Readings are provided, each with its accompanying psalm. The first set offers semi-continuous reading of Old Testament texts, the second set offers readings which relate to the theme of the Gospel reading. The latter course of readings is followed in this publication

Readings for Holy Days not provided for in the Revised Common Lectionary follow those in the Canadian Book of Alternative Services, otherwise readings are provided from alternative sources.

3 Readings for the Eucharist on weekdays are taken from the daily eucharistic lectionary of the Scottish Episcopal Church, which contains a two-year cycle. Each set includes two readings, one of which is a passage from a Gospel, and a psalm. Readings for holy days in category 6 are not provided; eucharistic readings for these occasions may be taken either from the common of saints, or from such works as Exciting Holiness, Lesser Feasts and Fasts, For All the Saints or the Roman Lectionary for saints' days.

4 Readings, Psalms and Canticles for use at Daily Prayer are also included. The readings are those from the SEC Lectionary, derived from the schema in the Canadian Book of Alternative Services. The psalms are those in an experimental schema prepared by the Liturgy Committee which pray the whole psalter, mainly in order, over two months (as the Scottish Prayer Book does it in one month). Readings for Sundays are found from the Revised Common Lectionary. The sets of canticles given, A-F, are those in the St Stephen's House Office Book.

ARRANGEMENT AND USE OF THE KALENDAR & LECTIONARY

5 Lectionary cycles: Readings for the Eucharist on Sundays and major Holy Days follow a 3-year cycle; readings for the Eucharist on weekdays and Daily Prayer follow a 2-year cycle. The cycles of the current year are indicated at the head of each page. (During the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter readings at the Eucharist on weekdays do not vary between years.)

6 Ordinary Time: During the time between Epiphany and Lent, and again between Pentecost and Advent, the collects, eucharistic antiphons and readings follow a single sequence of 34 weeks of "ordinary time" interrupted by the Lent and Easter seasons. The number of the current week is indicated on each page of the Kalendar next to the heading Eucharist.

7 In the publications prepared for the Church of England listed on page 6 a different referencing sequence for this time is followed: between Epiphany and Lent the readings are indicated according to the numbered Sunday after Epiphany; between Pentecost and Advent the readings are indicated by the second number (in italics) which follows the heading Eucharist.

8 Observances: At the head of each day, following the day of the week and date in the month, are indicated the liturgical colour for the day and the Sunday, feast or commemoration to be observed. On Memorials only the vestments need be changed, the frontal etc. may remain the colour of the season. The six categories of the SEC Kalendar are here simplified to four: SOLEMNITIES or Principal Feasts in BOLD CAPITALS; FEASTS in CAPITALS; Memorials and Ferias (days with no commemoration) in Normal Case; and Optional Memorials in Italic. Sundays are always in bold type.

From 17 December until 1 January inclusive, and from Ash Wednesday until Easter 2, Memorials are celebrated as Commemorations only. The proper to be used is that of the day in the season and the collect of the Memorial is said after the collect of the day.

Where the form of Daily Prayer to be used on any particular day differs from that indicated for the week, this is indicated here.

10 Eucharist: In the left hand column for each day are listed the readings to be used at the Eucharist. For commemorations in category 6 no proper readings are listed: those given are the ferial readings for that day in the season, which may be used to preserve continuity. Common readings for the observance of saints' days in category 6 are given on page 69; readings for other occasions are given on page 70.

For ferial days in the seasons of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter the collects and eucharistic antiphons may be those of the preceding Sunday or of the day in the week, except that the propers of Christmas Day, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday and Ascension Day are used on the following days in preference to those of the preceding Sunday. Proper collects and antiphons are provided for the weekdays following the feasts of the Baptism of our Lord, Pentecost, the Holy Trinity and Christ the King.

11 Daily Prayer: At the head of each page are indicated the Canticles to be followed from The Office as used at St Stephen's House (Cant:), the form of the Office from the old SEC Daily Prayer (Sco:), together with the psalter week from the Roman office (RoPs:). Variations applicable to particular days are there noted. Psalms for the morning are separated by an asterisk from those for the evening.

12 The collect to be used is as indicated for the Eucharist above, except that on Saturdays (except those days in categories 1 and 2) evening prayer is of the following Sunday and the collect of that Sunday or other occurring observance is used. Days in categories 1 and 2, and certain days in categories 4 and 5, also have first evening prayer of that observance, as indicated in the kalendar. Otherwise, the liturgical day begins and ends at midnight. However, on Christmas Eve and Easter Eve the collect at evening prayer is of that day.

13 The Lections: Normally three readings are given to be divided between morning and evening prayer, but on certain Holy Days separate readings are given for morning and evening. Verse numbers followed by "a" or "b" indicate the first or second part of the verse only. All biblical references (including psalms) are according to the New Revised Standard Version of the bible. Where another version is used, appropriate adaptations may be made. The abbreviations employed here are those of the New Revised Standard Version and are indicated on page 71.

RECOMMENDED RESOURCES

The recommended edition of the bible is the New Revised Standard Version (Anglicized Edition) with Apocrypha, published by Oxford University Press 1995 [ISBN 0 19107 001 7 (hardback) or 0 19107 002 5 (paperback)]

The full texts of the readings for the Eucharist on Sundays and major Festivals are published for the Church of England in a pew edition and on CD-ROM by Cassell/Mowbray 1997. [ISBN 0 26467 469 3 (hardback) 0 26467 475 X (paperback) and 0 26467 456 1 (CD-ROM)] On the few Sundays where the Church of England provision varies from the Revised Common Lectionary both provisions are printed.

Biographical and lectionary material for use on festivals of the saints can be obtained in Exciting Holiness published by Canterbury Press Norwich. The 2003 edition provides for all Anglican calendars of the British Isles. [ISBN 1 85311 479 0] A companion volume, Celebrating the Saints, contains daily spiritual readings to accompany the calendar of saints. [ISBN 1 85311 565 7]

The full texts of the readings for the Eucharist on weekdays are published in a pew edition (The Weekday Missal) by Collins 1982 [ISBN 0 00599 725 9] Other publishers and editions are available.

The forms of daily prayer referred to in the kalendar, and the authorised liturgical psalter can be obtained in Daily Prayer published by the Scottish Episcopal Church 1990. A shorter version is also available in Daily Prayer: a short form of Morning and Evening Prayer published in 1988 [ISBN 0 90557 307 2]
